

DISPLAYS: INDIVIDUAL, TEAM OR CLUB, DEPARTMENT 11

1. Read General Rules and Static Exhibit Rules carefully.
2. All entries may be prepared for exhibit by an individual exhibitor, a team of exhibitors from the same or different clubs, or by a club.
3. Decorative accessories, backdrops, table coverings etc., appropriate to each display, need not have been made by the exhibitor.
4. The display should be eye-catching, informative and educational. The judges are looking for various heights in the display. Use boxes, books or blocks under your table covering to obtain a variety of heights. The display should not look one dimensional. Backboards can be more than just plain cardboard; think about draping material over the backdrop to give it depth and a more polished look.
5. Table space measuring approximately 30" wide by 36" long will be provided. A larger space can be made available upon request. Should an electrical outlet be necessary, a limited number are available. Please request this with your entry.
6. All exhibits must be set up entirely by the exhibiting member/members and must be checked by the Department Chairman.
PLEASE NOTE: This Department will not be awarded Top Novice, Top Junior or Top Senior. A Best Individual Exhibit will be awarded.

Class A-Individuals; Class B-Team; Class C-Club

- Lot 01. Set A Table For Two. You'll have great fun setting a table for two! First decide whether you'll set a table for an informal dinner or informal luncheon. Second, decide what your theme will be for the table. Will it be seasonal, a special event (bridal, birthday, Mother's Day, etc.), a picnic, color or a Country? Whatever you decide, remember to keep your theme throughout the table setting in an attractive manner. Third, think of your menu. The menu must include 3 courses: an appetizer or soup, a main course and a dessert. It must be balanced in nutritional value, and pay special attention to colors and textures of your courses. There will be NO FOOD displayed!! Finally, this display must contain a tablecloth, placemats, appropriate flatware, plates, glassware, napkins and centerpiece. Please check your cookbooks for information and diagrams for setting a table.
- Lot 02. Tell A Story: This display will tell the story of how to make an item or describe project work or a hobby. It should show the various stages and steps needed in order to make the finished item. Directions for each stage may be hand-written or typed. All tools and materials needed to make the various stages of the item and the finished item must be in the display. Suitable backdrop and table covering are required. NOTE: this lot could be based on a Visual Presentation that you have done, but this is not required.
- Lot 03. Teddy Bear Holiday Picnic: Pick a holiday or occasion and display only 2 to 3 of your Teddy Bears enjoying a picnic! The display must include festive backdrops, table coverings and items to enhance the theme of the holiday picnic or occasion. There are a lot of holidays or occasions (such as weddings, birthdays, etc.) to choose from, so have FUN putting this display together.
- Lot 04. Four-In-One: This display must be in a container such as a good sized basket or box. Within the basket or box, 4 departments must be represented in an exhibit that follows the criteria of those departments.
